Extraordinary Barriers List

Patricia Newman reviewed the cases of four individuals on the Extraordinary Barriers List. Individual #1 barriers to placement include complex medical as well as mental health needs. At this time, they are seeking nursing home placement or an assisted living facility that can meet their medical needs. RACSB's liaison continues to send out referrals and follow up with numerous facilities. Marian Manor Assisted Living Facility in Stafford is currently reviewing their referral to see if they are able to accommodate their needs.

Individual #2 barriers to placement include identifying and being accepted to nursing home that can meet their needs. This individual has a diagnosis of mental illness and some medical conditions that require ongoing treatment. A nursing home is recommended because of their medical needs. RACSB's liaison has sent out numerous referrals and is working in conjunction with the individual's spouse to identify a nursing home that can meet this individual's need as well as is affordable

Individual #3 barriers to placement include making arrangements for services in the home in order to support this individual in remaining in their community with family. This individual has a mental health diagnosis as well as some physical limitations. DAP funding has been secured to fund in home services.
