Healthy Families – TA Report

Michelle Wagaman said Healthy Families conducted their annual quality assurance site visit of the local Healthy Families Rappahannock Area on January 20-21, 2022. This was one of five sites selected for review in the state. Overall the site is performing well and meeting quality standards.

Healthy Families – Women and Girls Fund

Michelle Wagaman informed the Committee Healthy Families of Rappahannock Area applied for the Woman and Girls Fund through the Community Foundation of the Rappahannock River Region.

Community Readiness Assessment is 2.3. This score best fits into the category of Denial/Resistance. Based on the interviews, awareness of gaming and gambling within the community appears to be low and most people don't view it as a problem. On-going funding will be based on tax revenues.

has been fixing broken links and replacing missing media since the update. The process takes a lot of time, but should be completed by early to mid-May.

Other Business

Ken Lapin asked Michelle Wagaman about the Prevention budget and how she planned to spend it. Michelle stated she was going to be using it to purchase advertising, gun and medication lock boxes, etc.

Ken Lapin complemented Amy on the articles she has written. Linda Ball also stated she has enjoyed reading them via Facebook.
